MOTTO

The Roots of Education Are Bitter
But the Fruit is Sweet

CLASS SONG

(Tune of Unchained Melody)

Time has come, as time must
For us to graduate
From Dear Scottdale High.
Though we'll be gone
Each of us
Will leave our hearts behind
Within Scottdale's halls.

We'll not forget,
We'll not forget,
We'll not forget,
These years.

As our separate ways we shall go, we shall go,
Leaving childhood's joys far behind
Wisdom we have gained here shall grow, it shall grow
Guiding our footsteps fast in time.

Scottdale High we leave thee
To face a life unknown
In this world of cares.
Though years shall pass and many
Shall nevermore return
To walk through these halls.

We'll not forget,
We'll not forget,
We'll not forget,
These years.

Thinking of the joys and the sorrows we've shared
Bearing all our burdens as one.
Together as a class for each other we cared
Gaining recognition well won.

Now the hour draws near
And to our many friends
We'll bid fond farewells.
Though years and miles will part us,
The memory of our school
Lives on within our hearts.

We'll not forget,
We'll not forget,
We'll not forget,
These years.

Words by Lucille Finger,
Arrangement by Beth Stimmel
